Attorney Docket No.: 20003-7024

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

5

10

1. An image capture method, the method comprising:

activating an interface element for a computing system having a control logic and a display to position a capture interface element over a portion of an image presented on said display by said computing system; and capturing said portion to an image transfer system external to said computing system using said computing system.

2. A computer program product comprising a computer readable medium carrying program instructions for capturing an image when executed using a computing system, the executed program instructions executing a method, the method comprising:

activating an interface element for the computing system having a control logic and a display to position a capture interface element over a portion of an image presented on said display by the computing system; and

- capturing said portion to an image transfer system external to the computing system using the computing system.
  - 3. An information distribution system, comprising:
    a kiosk having a display presenting one or more images from a computing system; and
- an interactive pad transfer system, coupled to said computing system, to capture one or more of said one or more images by proximating an element of said interactive pad transfer system to a portion of said display presenting said one or more images to be captured.